Writ Petition No.5963 of 2006

Order:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the respondents.

The petitioner, who worked as contract labour in A.P. Transco, Visakhapatnam, in the year 1995-98, attended for interview held for the post of Junior Lineman on 18.06.1998 before respondent No.2. Subsequently, as no orders have been received from the respondents, the petitioner submitted a representation dated 30.11.2004 to the Chief Minister of A.P., requesting to consider his case, which was forwarded to respondent No.2, who in turn, issued proceedings in Lr. No. SE/O/VSP/AE/T2/F.28/D.No. 272/2006, dated 08.02.2006, directing the petitioner to watch for publications in newspapers and as and when the vacancies are notified he can apply for a suitable job according to his qualifications. Meanwhile, the petitioner came forward with the present writ petition seeking to direct the respondents to provide a suitable post according to his qualification.

A perusal of the rejection order dated 08.02.2006 clearly indicates that the petitioner was advised to watch for publications in newspapers, and as and when vacancies are notified, he could apply for a suitable job according to his qualifications. In the light of the said rejection order, the petitioner has to wait for notification, and as on date, there is no cause of action for the petitioner to file the writ petition. The writ petition, being a premature one, is liable to be dismissed.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
